Annex to the letter dated 4 February 2015 from the Permanent Representative of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea to the United Nations addressed to President of the Security Council

Statement of the National Defence Commission of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea dated 4 February 2015

Obama announced new "additional sanctions" on the Democratic People's Republic of Korea through a "presidential executive order" at the outset of the year and slandered the Democratic People's Republic of Korea as "the most isolated, severed and cruel dictatorial state" on 22 January 2015.

Not content with that, he cried out for bringing down the Democratic People's Republic of Korea at an earlier date through information inflow by cyberwarfare, saying that such a regime would collapse with the passage of time.

Meanwhile, the politicians and military bosses of the United States have vied with each other in calling for tightened siege and blockade against the Democratic People's Republic of Korea through the relisting of sponsor of terrorism and "high-profile additional sanctions".

Typical of this is that the United States decided to stage the war drills it planned in south Korea and its vicinity, including the "Key Resolve" and "Foal Eagle" joint military exercises, under the pretext of "keeping the alliance system", held a secret dialogue to disable the nukes and missiles of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea at the command of the special operation force in the State of Florida, and then even formed the United States-south Korea joint division to put it into practice.

In this regard, the National Defence Commission of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, in a statement on 4 February, clarified the following principled stand of its army and people:

1. Now that the hostile policy of the brigandish United States imperialists towards the Democratic People's Republic of Korea is getting extremely ferocious, the army and people of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea will take stronger counteraction of justice to shatter it.

The United States policymakers were once so impudent that they had no hostile policy towards the Democratic People's Republic of Korea.

But the United States hostile policy that Obama has revealed towards the Democratic People's Republic of Korea is the harshest hostile policy, and it is chiefly aimed at "bringing down" the Democratic People's Republic of Korea.

As long as the United States imperialists' hostile policy towards the Democratic People's Republic of Korea becomes evermore ferocious, at an extreme phase, its army and people will indefinitely ratchet up retaliatory action of justice to counter the mounting mud-slinging of the Obama group at them, its escalation of harsh sanctions and pressure and the ever-expanding scale and scope of war drills against it.

The United States should clearly know that it is long since the words "the U.S. imperialists are the sworn enemy" became the phraseology commonly used by all people and the whole army of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and that the resolution to take revenge upon the United States under the slogan "Let's wipe out and annihilate the enemy and give death to him!" shaking this land is now growing so strong that they are ready to dash ahead like the wind towards the centre of the United States, the cesspool of crimes.

2. Now that the gangster-like military strategy of the United States imperialists towards the Democratic People's Republic of Korea is inching close to the stage of igniting a war of aggression, the just counteraction of the army and people of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea will be focused on inflicting the bitterest disasters upon the United States of America.

By origin, the United States imperialists are a group of gangsters accustomed to making profound confusion between right and wrong and unleashing war on the basis of plots and lies.

It was none other than the United States which escalated the Viet Nam war of aggression by faking the Gulf of Tonkin incident and which occupied Iraq by orchestrating a farce called the "operation to eliminate weapons of mass destruction". It was again the United States which ignited the Korean war under the pretext of "southward invasion" in the 1950s.

Today the Obama group is becoming so foolish as to try to "bring down" the Democratic People's Republic of Korea through a cyberwarfare by fabricating the non-existent "human rights issue" of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and floating the fiction about its "cyber attack" on Sony Pictures Entertainment.

In this dangerous situation, the army and people of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea have decided to write the last page of the United States history of shameful defeat about its final ruin exactly on the United States land by dint of Paektusan arms.

If the United States ignites a war of aggression against the Democratic People's Republic of Korea by conventional forces, the latter will fight the former using conventional forces of its style; if the former unleashes a nuclear war against the latter, it will counter through its own nuclear strikes; and if the former tries to bring down the latter through a cyberwarfare, it will react with its own preeminent cyberwarfare, and will thus bring about earlier the final ruin of the United States. This is a decisive option of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea.

The United States had better clearly know that the smaller, precision and diversified nuclear striking means and ground, naval, underwater, air and cyberwarfare means of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea will be used by the service personnel and through the people's display of the strongest mental power and indomitable ideology and will, which the gangster-like United States imperialists can never think of, and by the Juche-oriented strategy and tactics and unique war methods unprecedented in the human history of wars.

3. It is the decision of the army and people of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea that they have no further need or willingness to sit at the negotiating table with the United States, since the latter seeks to stamp out the ideology of the former and to "bring down" its social system.

The Obama group is so impudent as to claim repeatedly that the Democratic People's Republic of Korea should be led to changes and the "collapse" of its social system through "two-way strategy", "pressure" and "dialogue" by force.

Since the gangster-like United States imperialists are blaring that they will "bring down" the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, oblivious of its poor plight, facing adverse fate, the army and people of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea cannot but officially notify the Obama administration of the United States of America that the Democratic People's Republic of Korea has neither need nor willingness to sit at the negotiating table with the United States any longer.

The United States should no longer talk, under the eyes of the world, such nonsense as that dialogue will be impossible before "change".

The tradition of eternal victory for the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and disgrace and defeat for the United States imperialists, recorded in the past history of showdowns between the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and the United States, will be carried forward forever.

Running high are the extraordinary spirit and readiness of the army and people of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea to turn out in the toughest battle to settle accounts with the United States imperialists.

The United States imperialists, engrossed in the hostile policy towards the Democratic People's Republic of Korea century after century, should be mindful that the time of nightmare is coming nearer when they will meet the most disastrous, final doom on the United States mainland.
